This resolution was amended to read as follows and was then rejected by a vote of 8-13 on January 10. Senate Journal, Thirteenth Session, 227. Whereas the opinion is prevalent among the people of this state, that the annual meeting of the general assembly is attended with great expense, without a correspondent benefit; therefore, Resolved, That the committee on elections be directed to enquire into the propriety of reporting a bill providing for taking a vote of the people at the next annual election, whether they are in favor of calling a convention to change the constitution so that hereafter the Legislature shall meet biennially; and further to amend the constitution so as to elect senators, and representatives biennially, and to authorize the trials of justices of the peace by the circuit court, and the trials of circuit judges in case of impeachment, before the supreme court, as well as all the officers below the grade of supreme judges in the same court. 79. Biennial Sessions; Impeachments and Other Amendments (December 19, 1829). Fourteenth Session, 1829-30. James B....
