Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Arkansas State Council of Defense: May 22, 1917, to July 1, 1919 This report is not a history of Arkansas in the war, it is not even a complete account of any one of the many war activities of our State. It is only a brief outline of the work of the Arkansas State Council of Defense. In recording the work, it has been necessary to name the chairmen of the various committees through which the service was performed but to imply that they alone brought about the results accomplished would be most unfair to thousands of men and women in the counties of our State whose patriotic and consecrated service made for Arkansas such a magnificent war record. The people of Arkansas were a militant home army, backing the boys over there by united and unselfish patriotism and sacrifice. To attempt to name them is impossible. But they all labored in the endeavor to be worthy of the supreme sacrifice made by the sons and daughters of Arkansas on behalf of righteousness, justice and the freedom of men everywhere.
