

Mourning in the Evening (Paperback)

By Eric Ganan Pam

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Mourning in the Evening is a satire of political corruption. It is about irresponsibility on the part of the political class represented by Joy, the protagonist. His journey into the terrain of politics (as an elected senator) is initially with a good intention but later allows his greedy and power drunk wife to wield negative influence over him. Joy is introduced into politics by a man named Destiny, a successful businessman. Joy and Destiny meet through their daughters; Patience and Blessing, who are classmates. Joy squanders the people's goodwill with his inertia, greed and personal aggrandizement; a development that irks his mentor and political godfather; Destiny, who confronts him in order to call him to order but surprisingly gets snubbed. Exasperatingly, Destiny makes up his mind to unseat him at re-election but Joy who becomes arrogant and proud, intensifies efforts for his re-election believing that his money will see him through. Meanwhile, Patience and Blessing are saddened by the brawl in which their parents are embroiled but that does not affect their friendship. A few months to...
