Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 182 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.4in. For Home, Friends, Fireside, Country and Cause. This book is a study of the Civil War remembrances of Pvt. George Lewis Falls (1844-1886) (CSA) (Soldier/Musician) as set forth in his history, diaries, letters, and confederate muster records covering the period of time from October 25, 1861 to his return home to Fallston, NC. , 14 days after the surrender of General Robert E. Lees Army of Northern Virginia at Appomattox Courthouse, Virginia in April 1865. Georges History (event by event) is compared to the Regimental Histories of the Units he served in during the war, as written by the staff officers of the Regiments he served in during his two enlistments. Current road maps for his travels are included, generally at the beginning of each Chapter. The actual route of Georges travel is within the corridor of the current maps, but was by improved or unpaved road/trails, or by railroad. Nearly all of the sites of his travels during the War are currently available by Interstate or State primary highways. In many instances when the actual troop movement routes are known, additional maps are included at the appropriate location in the text. Georges ancestors came to North Carolina from Pennsylvania. Marriage, and the desire for land, brought them to Rowan County where they settled into farming. In all probability the migration was by way of The Great Philadelphia Wagon Road, which was a thoroughfare for migration to the south in the mid-1700s, and early 1800s. The boys that went into this War, like George, had similar farming backgrounds, with ancestors in common by marriage, similar education, training, and religious and moral upbringing. The War was an all volunteer, local participation effort to...
