DOWNLOAD

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; This is simply the ideal pocket book for any Walker, since it contains a wealth of useful information about walking in Britain, is perfectly pocket sized, and doubles up as a 2007 diary and walking log book. What makes this small book sumptuous, is the quality and clarity of the 260 colour images of walking spots around Britain, all of which have been printed to the highest quality. The book works in 3 major sections. In the Walking information section, 20 detailed relief maps split Britain into manageable and useful walking areas, and illustrate the locations for all the important British hills, fells, Peaks and Munros. The finest 500 British hills are categorised, and allow the walker to log any personal ascents. In addition, 500 lowland walking spots are described in detail, plus the inclusion of all major long distance footpaths. The Diary section is the central part of the book which includes a full year diary - week to view, with walking festivals and other events. 52 walking books are reviewed throughout this diary section. The Logbook section is made up of 40 pages at the rear of the book, which have been designed for sketching and writing, and will suit kids enjoying a few days on a D.of E award, up to Walkers making a detailed account of a serious Himalayan trek. book.
