Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Golf -the romance of the socialite, or more conventionally, the social-elite-is trending across all social groups these days. Authored by an avid golfer and PGA veteran writing under a penname, this Smart Easy Guide is a joy to read for anyone who is interested in Golf. Written like with the same rhythm and control that define golf itself, the book introduces you to a number of subtle factors and simple techniques that make the difference between winning and losing. This book would help you learn: How to achieve your balance and focus while golfing How to leverage wind, weather, and golf course condition to your advantage How to hold the clubs, attain proper posture and swing When to use which particular club, and the qualities of each Tips and technique for putting Avoiding and getting out of golf traps Golfing software and where to use them Golfing etiquettes And, most importantly, how to develop a winning habit To find a man's true character, play golf with him, said P G Wodehouse. However, you can't prove your mettle in golf unless you are good at it. Losing game after game makes you hate the sport, until an occasional win lifts your spirits. After reading this book, your triumph in golf would not depend on chance as much as it used to. Those who have played golf may be aware of its addictive potential. It's a game of tremendous drama and intense emotion. Winning at golf can mean living on the high, while losing game after game can drain your confidence, apart from causing extreme frustration. Thankfully, Smart Easy Guide to Winning at Golf is a book...
