Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Income Taxes The author of this article was born and raised on a farm in Wisconsin and has always resided in that state. After the usual training in the district and high school he entered the University of Wisconsin in 1882, graduating from the College of Letters in 1885. For the next four years Mr. Lyons served as county superintendent of his native county and then returned to the Law School, from which he received the degree of LL.B. in 1890. For the next twenty years he was engaged in the general practice of law at Superior, Wisconsin, during which time he served successively as school commissioner, library director and city attorney. In 1911 he was appointed a member of the Wisconsin Tax Commission and still holds a position on that board. He has written several articles on various phases of taxation. The Wisconsin Tax Commission has supervision over the assessment of the general property of the state and exclusive jurisdiction over the assessment of public service companies and administration of the income tax. Wisconsin...
