Wher ev er (hw4re lv dr), ad. at whatever place. Reading Lesson X. What is Pleasant. 1. It is very pleasant to walk in tho fields, and to have the sun shining wherever we go, and always to have some gay thing before us. 2. There are some people who would like to have nothing but summer, and who wi-h that the days were always long and bright, ana mu. , J, B., b . were no cold wind, or snow, or winter nights. 3. I have heard some little boys auu girls say, they should be very sorry when the bad weather comes 5 for, they should not then be able to play at all, and would have nothing to make them happy. 4. But they were very wrong, or else were very idle children 5-for, there are many reasons why they should not be sorry, when the snow or the rain keeps them within doors. 5. Without snow or rain, the seeds, from which the flowers and the fruits of the Bummer spring up, would perish and never do any good. 6. This is cause enough to make al1 good children contented, though the bad weather should sometimes keep them at home. 7. But I will tell you another thing, which should keep them from...
