THE GRADUATES THE NORTH-WESTERN ASSOCIATION OF THE M. I. T. The following letter was received from the secretary on March 11: --Your letter of February 27 was turned over to the writer by Mr. Lansing the first part of this week. I have been trying very hard, indeed, to write an article for the Review, but have been unable to find time to do this. In order, however, that you may have some data, I am sending you a printed report of the dinner, which was published in last weeks issue of the Western Electrician. Undoubtedly, the remarks of Dean Burton were of much more interest to the graduates than those of outside speakers. One of the interesting features was the impersonation of James J. Hill and Mr. McCutcheon by two of the worthy members of the North-western Association. The splendid work done by the officers and Executive Committee of last year has developed a wonderful amount of personal enthusiasm among the members of the North-western Association. At our informal dinners we had an average attendance of about sixty, and wound up with a grand total of one hundred and twenty at the annual banquet. Professor Burtons remarks regarding the possible affiliation of Tech with Harvard University were received with much interest by members of the Association. The universal verdict of those present was against any union of Tech with Harvard University. This opinion was ably defended by Mr. Louis A. Ferguson, 86. Enclosed find...
