Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Agricultural Research in New Hampshire: Annual Report of Director of New Hampshire Agricultural Experiment Station for the Year 1934 With a considerable body of knowledge of agricultural problems behind us, each decade still develops new questions which press for solution. The past few years have been a time of trial for the farmers of the state. The economic situation seems to have national and international implications - a sort of universal wave length which reaches to the last farm. The increased cost of grains, for example, has raised questions as to the possibility of raising more of our own feed stuffs. The influx of many new part-time and subsistence operators has resulted in specialized questions as to effective procedure for this new clientele. Meanwhile, new processes, new trends in the world at large are constantly reshaping the demand for our farm products. It is most fortunate that we have been able to carry on economic investigations during the past ten years. These studies have helped greatly to throw light on the unwieldy questions of marketing...
