Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in.Locked Rock, Iowa is lively again with Gracie Evans and her friends antics. Enjoy this story about Moser Mansion Rest Home residents attempt to make conditions better for women in 1905. What do you know! Gracie Evans, Moser Mansion resident, has turned into a womens activist. Locked Rocks newspaper is full of news from back east. Suffragettes are burning their corsets to draw attention to the fact that they want the same right to vote as the men. Women are trying to bring on prohibition with the help of Carrie A. Nation, Temperance Movement leader, by smashing saloons with hatchets. Gracie enlists the womens bible study group to organize a Temperance march. She means well, but before she knows it, shes turned the men in town against the women. The march gets Gracie and two others arrested. Her community service punishment as the towns telephone operator puts her in the hot seat right where the men in town want her so they can threaten her. However, someone does more than threaten the towns Temperance leader Ida Frank. A killer hacks Ida and her family to death with the Moser Mansion hatchet. Rafe Johnsons blood hounds trail a scent to Moser Mansion. All of Locked Rocks citizens are on edge and looking for someone to blame the murders on. Gracie Evans is the mens prime suspect. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
